Dear Chuck,

This is in response to your recent note to [redacted]

25X1

No "final report" was prepared on the Arab-Israeli Post Mortem. The "preliminary report" ultimately proved to be more than adequate for our and the DCI's purposes. There were, however, a number of actions taken as a follow-up to our "preliminary" Arab-Israeli Post Mortem:

-- "Common alert mechanisms" were established (with community help) as a result of IC Staff actions (Alert Memoranda, restructuring of Watch Committee's role, the establishment of a conferencing network for watch officers, etc.).

-- We have worked to improve adversary procedures in national products (replacement of the Central Intelligence Bulletin with the National Intelligence Bulletin is one example).

-- Other actions are of course under way in the community which relate to problems addressed in the Arab-Israeli PM (e. g., the work of the Office of

I can't remember if this was supplied by you or by some other member of the Community, but could you get it back to the right office.

This is billed as a "preliminary" report. If there was a final report, could you get me a copy?
